

Quality Policy

Johnson Matthey aims to provide exceptional value for our customers through continuous improvement and operational excellence as a recognised enabler of life enhancing sustainable solutions.

We are dedicated to upholding the highest levels of quality in all of our products and services across our global manufacturing base.

To achieve these high standards and meet our commitments, we set internal objectives and engage with our employees, customers, shareholders, supply partners and other stakeholders.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Simon Jones', written over a horizontal line.

Simon Jones
Interim Managing Director
19th September 2017